At Washington.

When Senator Caraway rose in his place in the Senate on May 2 and charged that Attorney General Daugherty received a fee for helping C. W. Morse to make his getaway from the Atlanta penitentiary during Taft's administration, Senator "Jim" Watson of Indiana made haste to defend Daugherty and to deny the whole story. He did this on the word and authority of Daugherty, he said.

On May 20 Senator Caraway had printed in the Congressional Record a letter which Daugherty had written Morse demanding a balance of $25,000 due on contract. The Washington News on that day printed a photographic copy of that letter bearing Daugherty's signature, as well as a copy of the contract which Morse made with Thomas B. Felder, of Atlanta, who brought Daugherty into the case because of his close relations with the president of that time—Taft. While the contract is made by Fe'der, it provided for a retainer of $5,000 for Daugherty, and expenses, with an additional $25,000 in case of Morse's release being obtained.

Senator Caraway, who has done the people the service of exposing Daugherty's action in contracting with this man, who was a convicted felon, agreeing to relieve him from his very proper punishment through his influence with the president, stated that the only decent course left open to Daugherty was to resign. Of course the man who put this job over on a president is not the sort who will resign, and the present incumbent at the White House hasn't enough of the Roosevelt spirit to fire him, as he so richly deserves. Of course Morse did not pay the $25,000, but proceeded to organize new companies which sought and obtained Government contracts, and is again in the toils for alleged frauds on the government.

Chairman Arthur B. Rouse of the Democratic Congressional Committee says: The great millionaire Republican Ways & Means Committee of the House last Wednesday presented a bill providing for ten extra collection districts in the United States. This bill met with the unanimous opposition of the Democrats and so many Republican members opposed the legislation that the leadership saw that if a vote were taken it would be badly defeated. The bill is now resting in the morgue.

The great millionaire Republican Ways & Means Committee yesterday presented a bill providing for a loan of $5,000,000 to Liberia, a Republic of Africa which has 60,000 civilized and 2,000,000 uncivilized people. Every member of the Democratic minority voted against this bill as did 43 Republicans. With a larger majority in the House than the Democrats have voters, the millionaire Republican Committee managed to pass the bill by a small majority of nine votes. This bill would have been defeated but for the party lash which was directed from the White House.

Our able Congressman scored the republicans in fine speech on this waste of people's money Mr. Tucker is taking his old time position of influence and power.

The Republicans are fighting among themselves. Some of the cabinet officers are under fire and we now have one of the able and respectable Republican Congressmen threatening to file impeachment charges against the Cabinet officer who is the strong arm and close personal adviser of the president because he refuses to prosecute certain war contractors

Buckingham

The closing exercises of the high school here were well attended in fact the spacious auditorium was filled to its utmost capacity. Educators of experience say that the record made at this school for the term was remarkable. There were 153 pupils enrolled of which 48 were doing high school work. The percentage of attendance in the high school department was 93 Teachers who have not received their pay promptly will be pleased to know that arrangements will be made to get their warrants cashed.

Rev. John Langdon Rogers motored here from his home in W. Va, in time to attend the closing exercises of the high school and see his nephew, Thornton R Glover, graduate.

Mr. Charlie Teeter is a guest at "Woodbarn" the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Glover.

Mr. Haram Buckner has gone on a business trip to Washington, D. C.

Mr. Thomas B. Hall has travelled through five counties in the interest of the Tobacco Association and he will travel again this week winding up his engagement.

Mr. John B. Boatwright as administrator of the estate of Mr. C. B. Denton is offering to sell the stock of merchandise as a whole and if a satisfactory sale is not made in this way the goods will be sold probably at auction.

Mrs. Cabell Robinson has been quite sick at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Groseclose and Miss Mabel Groseclose expect to leave here about the 15th of June and will be gone about six weeks.

Report says that two weddings are to take place here soon.

Mr. Ferrill who has occupied one of the farms owned by Mr. and Mrs. Perkins Ellis is preparing to move away within the next few weeks.

Professor Royall is boarding at the Pearson Hotel here

At the last meeting of the 18 school trustees composing the county board it is proposed that there shall be a banquet given at the expense of the members of the board and farewell addresses will be arranged for and a jolly good time is anticipated.

Indications are that there will be a heavy yield of wheat and that the harvest will be early. A man sent me a check for some flour at $9 a barrel when he had the option of paying for this flour in wheat or money.

Williams & Miller are forging away on their new mill and I hear they expect to expend about $7000 on the enterprise.

Mr. R. B. Hudgins was up here in a new car Saturday.

As I write the season for tobacco planting has set in and there will be many a tired back, I heard one old tobacco planter say he had planted as many as 10,000 tobacco plants in one day with only a little boy to drop for him.

Ice cream season is now in full swing and last week we had strawberry cream, June apples are big enough to make green apple pies and I have had some cherries.

I know of some fat June beeves for sale, but the city butchers havn't the enterprise to come this far to get them and farmers are too busy to market them now.

Fresh milch cows do not seem to be in demand and the people are letting the calves do the milching for them.

Road workers have done little to the roads except to have rock put in the mudholes.

The black berries will soon be ripe and those who make the moon shine will let the corn juice alone for a while and go into the wine business

Mrs. James L. Baird went to Cumberland Sunday to visit her sister, Mrs. Eugene Davis

Mr. W. Lee Patteson is still quite feeble and Mrs. R. B. Hudgins paid him a short visit last week.

The Sunday School at St Andrews church is getting on nicely. It is held at 3 o'clock Sunday evening and the young and old people attend regularly.

Tobacco Growers Enthusiastic

A golden torrent poured into the pockets of Kentucky Tobacco Growers last week when ten million dollars in the form of 75,000 checks was paid throughout the entire Burley belt to 60,000 growers in Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana.

Three thousand more tobacco growers joined the Burley pool during the meetings in connection with this second payment when the growers learned that third and final payment will soon be made by officers of the Burley Tobacco Growers Association.

Not only will Kentucky Tobacco Growers gain higher prices than the unorganized farmer, who sold on the open market but according to the news from Lexington Head quarters of the Burley Association, they will also make this additional profit after completing their first payment on the warehouses, which are to become the property of 60,000 Tobacco Growers.

A dispatch from Shelbyville, Kentucky recently received at Raleigh Headquarters of the Tobacco Growers Association describes payment of the second advance to the organized farmers as follows:

Approximately 650,000 dollars was distributed hare today among the 2,500 tobacco growers of Shelby county who are members of the Burley Growers Cooperative Marketing Association. The payments were made at the big Burley Warehouse, where a force of 25 clerks went on duty before 7 o'clock this morning and had completed the distribution of the 3,500 checks by 4 o'clock this afternoon. From early morning until late this evening the streets were thronged with the largest crowd seen in Shelbyville in many years. The five banks of the city did a rushing business, opening earlier and closing at a later hour than usual.

For the accommodation of the visitors the King's Daughters served dinners and luncheons in the park facing Court House and also at the Burley warehouse. The American Legion Band of fifteen pieces played throughout the day on the Public Square, and in the afternoon a base ball game was staged.

Dispatches from other counties of Kentucky described the Gala day on which Kentucky Farmers celebrated the complete success of their organization for Cooperative Markets.

"Wound Up."

I had been scolding one evening. The next afternoon my neighbor dropped in to inquire about my sister Jennie, who had been sick. I said I guessed the only thing that ailed her was that she was run down. Little Bob, four years old, who had been listening, piped up: "Well, mother, why don't Aunt Jennie get wound up like dad said you were last night?" —Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Pains Were Terrific

Read how Mrs. Albert Gregory, of R. F. D. No. 1, Bluford, Ill., got rid of her ills. "During . . . I was awfully weak . . . My pains were terrific. I thought I would die. The bearing-down pains were actually so severe I could not stand the pressure of my hands on the lower part of my stomach . . . I simply felt as if life was for but a short time. My husband was worried . . . One evening, while reading the Birthday Almanac, he came across a case similar to mine, and went straight for some Cardui for me to try.

The Woman's Tonic

"I took it faithfully and the results were immediate," adds Mrs. Gregory. "I continued to get better, all my ills left me, and I went through . . . with no further trouble. My baby was fat and strong, and myself—thank God—am once more hale and hearty, can walk miles, do my work, though 44 years old, feel like a new person. All I owe to Cardui." For many years Cardui has been found helpful in building up the system when run down by disorders peculiar to women.

Her Money Was Gone!

An old woman who lived alone had kept nearly $2,000 00 in currency around her house for years. She was afraid of banks.

Last fall she became seriously ill, and——

No, she didn't die But when she went to look for the cash it was gone! Fortunately some honest friends had found it while she was unconscious and had deposited it to her credit in a bank.

This woman has now decided that after all the bank is the safest place, and, besides, her money is not idle any longer. It is now earning 4 per cent for its owner.

Let us put your money to work for you.

Business expansion is by no means haphazard. It entails study and research. That our country may win in the race for world trade the Department of Commerce keeps its agents abroad to search business opportunities. The details of their work are brought out in the seventh of a series of folders on Our Government which we are distributing each month. The complete series gives a highly interesting and instructive account of Our Government and its advantages to you.
